Chairman Brodeur reported on the Shiawassee County Landbank Authority working towards the demolition of the Days Inn and that there are other projects going on. Community Mental Health is doing very well. These are critical services provided to the community. There will be some big changes coming due to Federal and State mandates. If anyone is looking for further information, he and the other board members will make themselves available for discussion.

County Coordinator Dr. Boggs reported on the Planned Unit Development (PUD) ordinance that was approved last month. The audit was submitted and accepted by the state. Next month there will be a presentation and discussion from the Shiawassee Council on Aging on the indirect rate study on the Senior Center. He and Attorney Eric Morris have been working with the new director of Shiawassee Health & Wellness regarding property and bond related issues and other administrative responsibilities and they plan to continue to meet with him. And finally, he will also be meeting soon with Bennington Township to discuss the Blight Proposal for a pilot.

Public comment: Rex Wheeler, New Lothrop – Future plans for Owosso Speedway Cindy Garber, Owosso – Gratitude to Attorney Eric Morris for work with the transition at Community Mental Health

Meeting adjourned at 5:24 p.m.
