PARENTING TIME COMPLAINT FORM

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: The Friend of the Court cannot enforce an alleged parenting time violation under the following circumstances:

- A. Your court order does not include a parenting time schedule.
- B. The alleged violation occurred more than 56 days ago.
- C. The non-custodial parent did not physically appear to pick up the children.
- D. The complaint is about an informal agreement between the parties, not an alleged violation of a court order.
- E. The complaint alleges child neglect and/or abuse. [Note: Call Children's Protective Services at 1 (855) 444-3911.]
- F. The complaint is about a police matter such as parental kidnapping.
- G. The complaint does not allege a violation of a specific provision in your court order. Examples of non-enforceable complaints, unless specifically addressed in your court order, include disagreements about clothing, haircuts, alcohol consumption, smoking, television shows, hygiene, medication not provided or returned, etc.

If your complaint fits one of the circumstances above, do not complete this form. You may file a motion on your own or through an attorney. Motion forms are available at the Friend of the Court Office or at www.shiawassee.net.

Please be advised that the office of the Friend of the Court will only enforce parenting time (as described in your court order). Agreements between parties will not and cannot be enforced by our office. Phone calls, text messages, emails or statements from the other parent stating you will not get parenting time do not count as parenting time violations. A complaint may be filed AFTER the alleged violation has occurred.

A copy of your most recent court order must be attached to this form. If you do not have a copy of your court order you may obtain one from the Clerk's Office in the Circuit Courthouse.
